ONWARD

And Firmness Were the Ideas of President McKinley's Ringing Acceptance Speech.

TAKE NO BACKWARD STEPS

But Old Glory Will Forever float to the Breeze on Sea and Land, the Emblem of Progress.

PROMISES HAVE ALL BEEN KEPT

CANTON, O., July 12.—Yesterday President McKinley, in answering Senator Lodge and the committee of notification of his nomination for re-election, repeated a statement made four years ago, in regard to upholding the honor of the United States, and quoted the record of his administration, adding:

"The people are not unfamiliar with what has been accomplished. The gold standard has been reaffirmed and strengthened. The endless chain has been broken and the drain upon our gold reserves no longer frets us. The credit of the country has been advanced to the highest place among all nations. We are refunding our bonded debt, tearing 3 and 4 per cent. interest, at 2 per cent. a lower rate than that of any other country, and already more than $300,000,000 have been so funded, with a gain to the government of many millions of dollars. Instead of 16 to 1, for which our opponents contended four years ago, legislation has been enacted which, while utilizing all forms of money, secures one fixed value for every dollar, and that the best known to the civilized world."

"A tariff which protects American labor and industry, and provides ample revenues, has been written in public law. We have lower interest and higher wages, more money and fewer mortgages. The world's markets have been opened to American products, which go now where they have never gone before. We have passed from a bond issuing to a bond-paying nation; from a nation of borrowers to a nation of lenders; from a deficiency in the revenue to a surplus; from fear to confidence; from enforced idleness to profitable employment. The public faith has been upheld; public order has been maintained. We have prospered at home and prestige abroad."

"Unfortunately the threat of 1898 has just been renewed by the allied parties without abatement or modification. The gold bill has been denounced, and its repeal demanded. The menace of 16 to 1, therefore, still hangs over us, with all its dire consequences to credit and confidence, to business and industry. The enemies of sound currency are rallying their scattered forces. The people must once more unite and overcome the advocates of repudiation, and must not relax their energy until the battle for public honor and honest money shall again triumph."

"A congress which will sustain, and if need be, strengthen the present law, can prevent a financial catastrophe, which every lover of the republic is interested to avert."

Concerning our insular possessions he said:

"Spain has been ejected from the Western hemisphere and our flag floats over her former territory. Cuba has been liberated and our guarantee to her people will be sacredly executed. A benevolent government has been provided for Puerto Rico. The Philippines are ours and American authority must be supreme throughout the archipelago. There will be amnesty, broad and liberal, but no statement of our rights, no abandonment of our duty. There must be no scuttling policy. We will fulfill in the Philippines the obligations imposed by the triumphs of our arms and by the treaty of peace; by international law; by the nation's sense of honor; and more than all, by the rights, interests and conditions of the Philippine people themselves. No outside interference blocks the way to peace and a stable government. The obstructionists are here, not elsewhere. They may postpone, but they cannot defeat the realization of the high purpose of this nation to restore order to the islands and to establish a just and generous government, in which the inhabitants shall have the largest participation for which they are capable."

Concerning China, he said:

"The sudden and terrible crisis in China calls for the gravest consideration, and you will not expect from me now any further expression than to say that my best efforts shall be given to the immediate purpose of protecting the lives of our citizens who are in peril with the ultimate object of the peace and welfare of China, the safeguarding of all our treaty rights and the maintenance of those principles of impartial intercourse to which the civilized world is pledged."

Closing he said:

"We have been moving in untried paths, but our steps have been guided by honor and duty. There will be no turning aside, no wavering, no retreat. No blow has been struck except for liberty and humanity, and none will be. We will perform without fear every national and international obligation."

JURY SECURED

TRIAL OF POWERS WILL SOON BE UNDERWAY.

Jury Stands 10 Goebelites, 1 Independent and 1 Republican—Panel Completed This Morning.

GEORGETOWN, July 13.—The selection of the jury in the Powers case created much contention yesterday afternoon. There were rejections and expurgations. Finally the commonwealth announced it would accept the jury as it stood. Its make up was one Republican, one Independent Democrat, one Prohibitionist with Democratic leaning and nine regular Democrats. At 3 p. m. the counsel for the defense retired to decide upon their peremptory challenges. They returned at 4 and excused Messrs. Sprake, Zolasing, Hook, Franks, Robinson, Cannon and Jamison. This left eight challenges for the defense and three for the commonwealth. The work of raffling the jury box was begun at once and lasted until court adjourned. Today the jury was completed and formally sworn in. The commonwealth exhausted its peremptory challenges by excusing a known Brown Democrat and the defense finished its challenges after having accepted those known to be Goebelites. Colonel Owens, who was struck by a street car last night and painfully hurt, appeared in court on crutches, over the doctor's protest, to conduct the defense.

It was 11:20 when the jury was completed and sworn in. Court then adjourned until 2 o'clock, when it was announced the case would be started. Campbell is to present the prosecution and there is much interest to hear what he will allege as proof. The jury as sworn in is composed of B. F. Ford, W. O. Tindler, A. W. Craig, W. P. Munson, George Murphy, W. H. Orlham, Alonso Kenner, J. T. Orostwalt, J. T. Malberry, Harris Mammel, ten Goebelites; J. G. Stone, Prohibitionist, and J. O. Porter, Republican.

It is reported that a party of motorists here were overheard plotting to kidnap Governor Taylor and return him to Kentucky.

UNITED STATES WANTS INFORMATION

LONDON, July 13.—"We are near the end. Good by." This is the last message by courier from Sir Robert Hart in Pekin. It bears date of June 25, 18 days ago, and was received at Che-Foo yesterday afternoon.

A private letter, also dated June 25, has reached Tien-Tsin, which says:

"We are in danger of death. Thirty thousand troops are attacking. Only three days' food is left. No news comes of troops. If no relief comes all seems hopeless. Malien's store has been burned and the hotel in Pekin bombarded. The Italian, Dutch, American and part of the British legations have been burned."

The following paragraph is taken from an edict by Prince Tuan: "The anger of our people knew no bounds. They could not be restrained. The task of guarding the legations, which before was difficult, was made impossible."

Officials here consider this a partial lift of the veil from the tragedy of the century, and intended to pave the way for final disclosure of the awful butchery.

CHE-FOO, July 13.—With great slaughter the forces of foreign powers have been defeated at Tien-Tsin. The eastern arsenal, recently captured by allied troops, has been reconquered by Chinese under General Mah, after an engagement lasting six hours. During the engagement Admiral Seymour reported another wound. The yellow fanatics are following up their success by looting all Christian residences. An urgent appeal has been sent by the Japanese commander for reinforcements, as general defeat threatens the allied forces.

During the attacks on the city 10,000 Chinese were slain. The bodies are lying in heaps about the city, unburied and pestilence threatens to increase the horrors of the situation. The food supply of the allied forces is also running short, increasing their peril. The Chinese forces are now in control of the effective guns of the fort commanding the city walls near the Tao-Tai Yamen and the allied troops are in dire straits through the lack of heavy guns and cavalry.

The Best Prescription Is Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The Formula Is Plainly Printed on Every Bottle, So That the People May Know Just What They Are Taking.

Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called "Tasteless" chill tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. FRIDAY, JULY 13, 1900.
REPUBLICAN TICKET.
For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.
For Vice President,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
Of New York.

Tomorrow at 2 p. m. the Democrats throughout the state are to meet at their respective voting places to name and instruct delegates to county convention to be held Monday to appoint and instruct delegates to a state convention to be held on the 19th, in Lexington, at which a candidate for governor will be chosen. There is very little interest in the contest and the promise is that the county convention will prove very tame affairs. The nomination of the gang leader, Beckham, seems a foregone conclusion. For the gang followers seem to hold the reins.

Citizens are endeavoring to settle the street car strike in St. Louis by arbitration.

The St. Paul Globe, the ablest Democratic paper in Minnesota, and the peer of any in the nation, has lately the nomination of Bryan and exerts the platform.

James H. Eckles, comptroller of the currency under President Cleveland, announces himself as opposed to the election of Mr. Bryan, and gives most cogent reasons for his opposition, other than those connected with the currency. Mr. Eckles says he is still a sound money Democrat and will vote for President McKinley. Between Republicanism and Populism, filtered through the channels of Bryanism, he prefers Republicanism.

Democrats, Populists, Greenbackers, Silver Republicans and Webster Davis "jabbed" over the result of the action of the Kansas City convention at Lincoln on Tuesday. It was a conglomerated gathering.

Some people are joining in the cry for civil liberty and we want the world to remember that with corrupt courts, and slavish sheriffs, and mercenary lawyers after us all, it is well to beg for a little personal liberty. When the jail, the finding of a grand jury under the manipulation of a renegade from Ohio, who cares not half as much for a Kentuckian as for an ass, is after us, we need some assurance that we will not be subjected to extreme punishment before we are proven guilty of any crime.

The Democrats are no longer a party of principles, but of expediency.

"Democratic party" is a misnomer. Even Popocrats would fail to describe the socialist cabal, under that name, lately held at Kansas City.

"Bryanites" alone will serve as a party name for the late national cabal at Kansas City, since he was the sole dictator and autocrat of all its proceedings.

The Democratic oligarchy, rehabilitated at Kansas City, left Waterson out of the governing junta and it is not surprising that he knives the platform while pretending to support the ticket. "Hall W. J. Bryan, the king of Lincoln, Neb.," should have been the about of that journal.

Irretrievable greenbacks, to the extent of $5000 per inhabitant, would be practically the same thing as 16 to 1 and free coined silver. If the people are ready for that, and to pay $1 a bushel for meal, $10 a barrel for flour, 30 cents a pound for bacon, 30 cents per pound for choice cut of beef, 30 cents per gallon for coal oil and other necessities in proportion, they should vote for Bryan and get a cloth coat for $30.

The Republicans of McCracken county should turn out and attend the convention tomorrow. It is true there is but one office to fill and one candidate to name, but your attendance at the convention tomorrow will prove that you are still interested in the fight for your liberty to vote, and it will show the (Godless) Democratic contingent that the Republicans are not, and will not be, bluffed. It will demonstrate your purpose to fight for your rights until the last ditch is crossed. So turn out notwithstanding the fact that Hon. John W. Yerkes is virtually nominated. Let the Republicans of Kentucky demonstrate in Louisville what those of the nation did at Philadelphia—their love, esteem, regard, enthusiasm, and confidence for the man with popularity enough to be the unanimous choice of his party.

It is such little regard for health and recreation that give this elaborate record of being full of malaria and not healthy. With proper attention paid to sewerage, sprinkling, the oil of eucalyptus, and the oil of eucalyptus, there is no reason Paducah should not be as healthy as any city in the United States. Stop the draining of kitchen sinks and bath tubs into our gutters, stop this throwing of dead rats, cats, and other offal into the streets, flush the gutters as they should be, and then by all means sprinkle the streets. With these matters having proper attention Paducah will be a healthier city and her people could feel they were deriving some benefit from the $148,000 they are forced to pay as taxes.

No man can truthfully after a word against the Hon. John W. Yerkes. He is the embodiment of honor, sincerity, intelligence and good judgment, a true Christian gentleman capable of creditably filling the high office of governor of Kentucky.

Has the council closed the deal to improve Broadway according to the law? There are reports and allegations to the contrary. The deal called for a bond both to do the work and to keep it in repair for five years—and it specifies the character of bond—but the work is going on and it is said no bond has been given. If this is true the fact is startling. Does the city want a rotten piece of work on Broadway and does it want to have to pay for the rebuilt side walks? Perhaps not, but this is what will be the result. The letter of the bid as well as the contract must be carried out, or there will be trouble and trouble when settling day comes. And this is no joke, nor is it carping.

NINE TICKETS.

Voters Will Doubtless Be Able to Satisfy Their Whims from This Lot.

On January 27 the Socialist Labor party at Rochester nominated John Harriman of California for president and Max S. Hayes of Ohio for vice president.

2. On March 6 the Social Democrats put up at Indianapolis Eugene V. Debs of Indiana for president and John Harriman for vice president.

3. On May 23 at New York the De Leon Socialists nominated Joseph P. Maloney of Massachusetts for president and Valentine Bonnell of Pennsylvania for vice president.

4. On May 1st Rock Island, Ill., the United Christian party nominated the Rev. S. C. Swallow of Pennsylvania for president and John C. Woolley of Illinois for vice president.

5. On June 28 at Chicago the Prohibition party nominated John G. Woolley of Illinois for president and Henry B. Metcalf of Rhode Island for vice president.

6. On May 9 the Middle of the Road Populists met in convention at Cincinnati and proceeded to nominate Wharton Barker of Pennsylvania for president and Ignatius Donnelly of Minnesota for vice president, thereby ratifying the action of an earlier convention held in Cincinnati on September 5, 1898.

7. The same day the Fusion Populist convention met at Sioux Falls. It nominated William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska for president and Charles A. Towne of Minnesota for vice president.

8. On June 19 at Philadelphia the Republican party met in convention and nominated unanimously William McKinley of Ohio for president and Theodore Roosevelt of New York for vice president.

9. On the fourth of July the Democratic party met at Kansas City and placed in the field William J. Bryan for president and Adlai E. Stevenson for vice president.

Advice to Populists.

It is certain that the self respecting members of the Populist party, in Kentucky at least, will not vote the Democratic ticket this fall. Their grievances elsewhere are nothing to what they are in Kentucky. They have been disfranchised by the Democratic party and have been denied all the privileges of a party. They are refused not only officers of election, but even inspectors at the count. They were insulted last fall in every way by the Democratic machine, and their votes were shamelessly stolen. If they desire the party to exist in Kentucky they must unite in shattering the Democratic machine.—Louisville Post.

Doesn't Mean Much.

All this talk of harmony has a sweet sound and tickles the ear, but it doesn't mean much. It is intended to catch suckers, but the suckers are wary. The case could not be better put in a few words than the Lexington Herald says: "The anti-Godless, the anti-Campbell Democrats are not going into the primaries now approaching; they have no idea of being bound to submit to whatever action the Lexington convention takes. They have made up their minds to smash the present machine and to make every Democratic nomination equivalent to a defeat until the (Godless) law is repealed. And every day's delay in calling the Wives, Beware!

An expert mother had better not take anything at all than those positively dangerous mixtures so widely advertised to relieve her discomfort and nausea. She ought to know that outside external treatment is the only way that can possibly be of any benefit. She ought to know that Mother's Friend is the only remedy that will help her, and it is an external liniment. It takes her through the entire period in comparative comfort, shortens labor, and childbirth is no longer to be dreaded. More than that, it preserves her girlish shape after the ordeal, and her little one will come into the world perfect in form and health.

They Discovered Him Before He Had Time to Slay.

Officers Gourinex and Singery were called to Flannery's grocery, on South Second street, last night about 8 o'clock by the report that a burglar was inside. A customer had gone to the grocery and saw a man inside, although the door was locked. He rattled the door to attract attention and the man, who was crawling about behind the counter, precipitately fled out the back door. It is supposed he concealed himself inside before the place was locked up with the intention of burglarizing it.

SUICIDE AND MURDER.

The Stories Which Came from Cape Nome Not Golden Ones.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 13.—The stories which come from Cape Nome are shocking. The town has collapsed and nothing could equal the gloom and depression that are settling over the supposed new El Dorado camp. Hundreds of weary voyagers are eager to return home, but are unable to raise the passage money. Men unused to hard manual labor are working as stevedores and longshoremen for the necessity of life. There are 20 applicants for every vacant job.

The beach is completely worked out and is strewn with gold extracting machines that could not make enough to pay the operating expenses.

Subplots are frequent and murders are of daily occurrence. One woman, insane from poverty, killed her husband and then committed suicide.

Argonaut's Trial Trip.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 13.—The submarine boat Argonaut, invented by Simon Lake of Baltimore, Md., made a trial trip off this harbor with thirteen guests on board. Three miles out the boat was submerged to a depth of thirty feet. The trap door in the diver's apartment was then opened, the water being kept out by compressed air at twelve-pound pressure, and the divers passed out through the door. The boat was submerged for four hours and was propelled along for several miles.

The Argonaut was built at a cost of $75,000. She is a surface boat, a diving machine and a sea bottom craft combined. The hull is a steel cylinder, 36 feet long and 9 feet in diameter, stoutly braced on the inside so as to withstand great pressure from without. Rising two and one half feet from the highest point of the curving deck is a circular conning tower, through which is the only entrance to the interior of the craft.

Below the water line are curious appliances which make the boat able to swim or crawl. On each side is a big wheel, which extends below the bottom of the boat. At the stern is a propeller. On these the boat travels along the ocean, sea or river bed. The wheels are also the

Where a Child Preaches at Home.

In Home, at the Church of Ara Cecil, there is a very beautiful and unique ceremony on the feast of the Epiphany. A rostrum is erected near the entrance, in front of the chapel which holds the prespio (tribe) with the Saviour. From this rostrum, during the time of vesper, little children preach. The church is very large, and on entering we found ourselves in a dense crowd. Seats were out of the question. We were thankful to have got inside the door. Far away in the distance we saw the altar lights and the moving forms of the officiating priests. The tones of the organ came to us mellowed by distance, when suddenly, in the midst of the crowd which hemmed us about, arose the clear accents of a child's voice. It might have been an angel's, so sweet it seemed, and so impressive. The sermon finished, the child was caught rapturously in its mother's arms and its place filled by another.

Far away in the distance we saw the altar lights and the moving forms of the officiating priests. The tones of the organ came to us mellowed by distance, when suddenly, in the midst of the crowd which hemmed us about, arose the clear accents of a child's voice. It might have been an angel's, so sweet it seemed, and so impressive. The sermon finished, the child was caught rapturously in its mother's arms and its place filled by another.

CONLEY

Confesses He was One of the Train Robbers Who Held up the Fast Mail.

He Gives the Names of His Pals and the Amount of Money They Secured.

IS CONFINED IN JAIL AT WICKLIFFE

Richard Conley, a boiler maker, is in jail at Wickliffe, Ky., charged with complicity in the hold-up of the fast-mail on the Illinois Central near Wickliffe Wednesday morning.

He walked into Charleston, Mo., yesterday lured and prebared a pair of shoes.

As the tracks of a barefooted man were found on the bank where the robbers are supposed to have been, he was immediately arrested and lodged in jail, being taken thence from Charleston to Cairo, thence to Wickliffe.

At Cairo he made a confession. He admitted to the officers that he was one of the robbers, and that there were but two others, three in all.

They had been camping on Island No. 1, in the Mississippi river near Fort Jefferson, for several days before the robbery, and there completed the details for it.

Conley claims to be from California and says the other two men were from Chicago.

After the robbery they returned to the island to make a division and fell out.

The two Chicago crooks wanted to "hog" all the booty after robbing Conley into their scheme. They finally fought over the affair "divvy," but Conley got only $50 and being two to one they left him to swim the river or remain on the island and be captured, and in order to swim the river he threw away his shoes, and that's how he happened to be barefooted.

Conley has furnished the officers with the names of his pals and the approximate amount of money they secured, but the officers have made neither public.

About all he has given out publicly is that it is pretty hard to come 3,000 miles and get only $50 out of the job.

The robbery seems to have been well planned, and judging from the quantity of fire-arms and explosives found near the scene they were prepared for any emergency, and would have gone to any extremity to accomplish their purpose.

Conley smiles grimly at the report of the train men that there were six men in the crowd of handits. Six men, he said, could not have conveniently escaped in the skill they had.

While the officers to whom the confession was made refuse to reveal anything except the bare fact that Conley confessed, it is given out that the haul was a good one, and not a thousand dollars or two, as some of the express company's officials seem to desire the public to believe.

Conley seemed willing enough to go to Wickliffe after learning that the game was up, and will be given a trial as soon as possible.

The Sun has advice from St. Louis which says: In St. Louis this morning early after a running fight, the chief of the Illinois Central agency, Murray, captured John Barnes, one of the men supposed to have robbed the Illinois Central train near Wickliffe. John Nelson, another suspect, escaped. Murray was wounded in the arm. Barnes suits the description given of one of the men in the robbery gang.
